ICOP

Italian Conference on
Optics and Photonics

Organized by

Firenze, 17 – 19 June 2024

ICOP overview

Following the successful Conference in Parma (2020) and Trento (2022), we are honored to organize in Florence the 3rd edition of the Italian Conference on Optics and Photonics, which aims to bring together researchers from all over Italy, networking and exchanging their research developments in the field of Optics and Photonics, in a stimulating and multidisciplinary forum.

The Conference will establish as a high-level meeting in the areas of Nano and Quantum Sciences, Optical Communication Systems, Optical Imaging and Sensing, Laser and Nonlinear Optics, Applications of Photonic Technology and new Emerging Topics.

The program will feature invited lectures, oral and poster sessions.

Exhibit and Sponsorship prospectus

Dear Company Representative:

The Organizing Committee for ICOP2024 would like to invite you to participate as a supporter and/or exhibitor at the upcoming event to be held on 17-19 June 2024 in Florence, Italy.

As an exhibitor, advertiser, or contributor, this Conference will give your company the unique opportunity of placing your business in front of a wide professional community in this field.

ICOP2024 offers a top-quality technical program consisting of state-of-the-art developments in the field combined with networking opportunities.

We look forward to another successful ICOP edition and we hope that your company will seriously consider participating.

Sincerely,
Dr. Ambra Giannetti,
Conference Chair
